

How to Search through NMSA (New Mexico Statutes Annotated) at the Conway Greene Website.

To search the online statutes at www.conwaygreene.com you should first start at the following link:

<http://www.conwaygreene.com/nmonesource/publicLicense.aspx?dest=cg>

You should see the following screen:

The image shows two screenshots from the New Mexico One Source of Law website. The top screenshot displays the 'New Mexico One Source of Law' logo and a 'Welcome to New Mexico One Source of Law' message. Below this is a 'NEW MEXICO ONE SOURCE OF LAW SUBSCRIPTION TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF THE PUBLISHER SUBSCRIPTION AGREEMENT'. A red box highlights the first section, '1. License; Limitation on the License', which contains the following text: '1.1 The Publisher hereby grants a non-exclusive, non-transferable license to access and use the OneSource Online System solely in the regular course of Subscriber related work. The license includes the right to transfer to a disk drive under the exclusive license of the Subscriber insubstantial portions of Licensed Content the above or as allowed by 17 U.S.C. 107 (the fair use exception of the Copyright Act of 1976), no portion of which may be copied, stored in a retrieval system, transmitted, reproduced, transferred, stored or disseminated in any form by the Subscriber without written permission of the Publisher.' A red arrow points from this text to an 'I agree' button. A red box with the text '1. Read the One Source of Law license agreement, then click the "agree" button to continue' is positioned over the text and the button.

The bottom screenshot shows the 'State of New Mexico' website interface. It features a search bar, navigation links for 'Prev Doc', 'Next Doc', 'Reference', and 'Sync Toc', and a list of folders. A red arrow points to the 'New Mexico Statutes and Court Rules' folder. A red box with the text '2. Click on the New Mexico Statutes and Court Rules folder' is positioned over the folder name. To the right of the folder list, the text 'NEW MEXICO STATUTES AND COURT RULES UNANNOTATED' is displayed in large, bold, red letters. Below this, it says 'Current through the First Special Session of the Legislature' and 'Includes Rules filed in the Supreme Court'. At the bottom, it says '© 2008, State of New Mexico.' and provides a link: '(Click here for Print and CD Pur New Mexico Compilation)'. A red arrow also points from the 'I agree' button in the top screenshot to the 'New Mexico Statutes and Court Rules' folder in this screenshot.

29-15-3. Missing persons information clearinghouse; function.

- A. The "missing persons information clearinghouse" is established in the department of public safety. The department of public safety shall provide for the administration of the clearinghouse. The department of public safety may adopt rules and regulations to carry out the provisions of the Missing Persons Information Act [29-15-1 NMSA 1978] in the manner prescribed in Subsection E of Section 9-1-5 NMSA 1978.
- B. The clearinghouse is a central repository of information on missing persons and shall be used by all law enforcement agencies, including tribal agencies, in this state.
- C. The clearinghouse shall:
- (1) establish a system of intrastate communication of information relating to missing persons;
  - (2) provide a centralized file for the exchange of information on missing persons and unidentified bodies of persons within the state;
  - (3) communicate with the national crime information center for the exchange of information on missing persons suspected of interstate travel;
  - (4) collect, process, maintain and disseminate accurate and complete information on missing persons;
  - (5) provide a statewide toll-free telephone line for the reporting of missing persons and for receiving information on missing persons;
  - (6) disseminate to custodians, law enforcement agencies, the state department of public education, the children, youth and families department and the general public information that explains how to prevent child abduction and what to do if a child becomes missing;
  - (7) compile statistics relating to the incidence of missing persons within the state;
  - (8) provide training and technical assistance to law enforcement agencies and social services agencies pertaining to missing persons; and
  - (9) establish a media protocol for disseminating information pertaining to missing persons.
- D. The clearinghouse shall print and distribute posters, flyers and other forms of information containing descriptions of missing persons.
- E. The department of public safety may accept public or private grants, gifts and donations to assist the department in carrying out the provisions of the Missing Persons Information Act [29-15-1 NMSA 1978].
